SIXTY-SEVENTH YEAR

Narrow Margin Labor Wins By Election In Britain

By Jack Sullivan
GRAVESSEND, Kent, England, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The Labor government passed one of its severest tests in the midst of the difficulties of post-war reconstruction when its candidate was declared victorious by a narrow margin early today in the by-election in this small parliamentary constituency. And with the result still fresh, voters trooped to cast their ballots in two others.

FINAL FIGURES in the Gravesend by-election, sequel to the expulsion from the House of Commons of Garry Allighan, Labor member for "dishonorable conduct," showed:

Sir Richard Acland, Labor, 24,682; Conservative Frank Taylor, 23,617—a plurality of 1,065 compared with Allighan's margin of 7,056 in the three-cornered fight in the general election of 1945. Nearly 80 per cent of the voters—a constituency record—exercised their franchise yesterday.

Allighan, a former Toronto newspaper man, was expelled from the House for writing an article alleging that Commons members accepted bribes from newspapers to return for inside information on the by-elections today.

Survivor Tells Of Shipwreck

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, Nov. 27.—(AP)—A survivor of the ill-fated Clarksville Victory disclosed today that officers and crew of the wrecked United States Army transport believed the ship to be about 25 miles off shore when it was struck around the northern British Columbia coast.

Details of the grounding Monday night were related by Seaman Carlos M. Sanabria, 21, first of the survivors in the lifeboat of the Clarksville Victory. He was suffering from shock and exposure, a fractured wrist, and bruises and lacerations.

Sanabria said the ship was struck by a 25-foot wave, and the bodies of four seamen are to be brought ashore the cut today. The other 40 officers and crew have been given up for lost. No passengers were aboard.

Sanabria said the vessel "was lifted bodily by a roller, striking heavily, and then shattered as she struck a rock."

"All hands were called to the lifeboats," he said.

One Man Killed In Hotel Blaze

DUPARQUET, Que., Nov. 27.—(CP)—Fire early today took the life of one man and caused damage estimated at $75,000 when it gutted the Goldfield hotel in this mining town of 2,000 people.

Emile Housin, of Balmoral, Quebec, died in the blaze and for a time was feared high on the list of registered guests at the hotel as from Nova Scotia, had been caught in the fire but was not seen.

The fire was brought under control but turned up. He said he saw the light at about 10:30 p.m. and that he was in the heart of the Quebec gold mining district, 31 miles north of Rouyn-Noranda.

Police Chief J. R. Charrier said: "This is only a guess but I would think the blaze started from a cigarette."

Twelve guests, men, women and children, fled to the street in rear weather as volunteer firemen fought the blaze. All but one of the fire was under control and the hotel is a three-story building. The fire broke out in the second floor, spreading down to the second floor.

"J.S. Is Observing Thanksgiving Day"

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Millions of Americans today observed their third post-war Thanksgiving, a day set aside this year by President Truman for "better sharing our bounty with needy people of other nations."

Find Aged Woman Near Starvation

CALGARY, Nov. 27. — (CP) — City Commissioner V. A. Newhall had night promised a "complete investigation" of the case of Mrs. Alexandra Potts, 71, who was found lying in her humble dwelling near the southwestern outskirts of Calgary.

Mrs. Potts, who lived alone in the small dilapidated cottage, was removed to hospital by ambulance Tuesday night after neighbors who had become alarmed at her condition reported her to the police. Hospital authorities said yesterday Mrs. Potts was suffering from lack of nourishment but that she was making good recovery on a special diet.

It was believed that the aged woman had not had anything to eat for about a week and her home which the widow has owned since occupied for about 15 years, lacked facilities of light, heat and water.

It was reported that Mrs. Potts refused to leave her home and live with relatives because she wanted to be there to greet him because of this she declined the offer of another home in Calgary, to make her home with him. She preferred to be independent.

City relief officials said Mrs. Potts had been on the relief rolls from 1935 to July 31 of this year. She said the officials that she would not apply for the aid as she felt entitled to relief because she was a taxpayer.

$24.50—some was sold yesterday at $24. During that time Canadian growers sold about $12.50 No. 1 northern at the head of the lake. AGRICULTURAL minister said last night that the pool was considerably more than $200.00, but it should not be drained dry.

THE DOMINION-provincial conference on grain marketing, which began Monday, will have these figures before it and will be told the government's policy of selling farm products under agreements with the United Kingdom.

An argument in support of farm agreements with the United Kingdom will be that white selling in the United States market helped Canada's present, secure dollar position. It would not be advantageous over a long term.

There is no assurance that pouring Canadian products into the United States market will bring either better prices there or avoid storms of protest from American farmers.

ONCE THE DRAIN of American supplies to feed Europe ends, Canada will be left with a surplus of American products in the United States market which will be sold at a loss.

THE VICTORY marked the government's successful defense of the seats in 19-20 by-elections since the landslide at the polls two years ago.

Mr. Richard, born in wealth in a Liberal family, gave up his money and property and campaigned as leader of the Conservative party before being elected.

His opponent made his way to prosperity as an engineer after the war, but he was a poor-quality apprentice.

The "treatment of Germany" which had been submitted to the council in Moscow last April, No. 1 stressed that Britain favored the creation of a central German government.

BEVIN SUGGESTED that this would be a basis for discussion. Marshall accepted the suggestion, Germany must be given a principle outlining Russia's views on Germany.

Ridgall commented that it was strange for the ministers to spend two days fixing an agenda and then have none of the items respected.

Earlier Ridgall told the council that since great numbers of people had been shifted into Western Germany because of the frontier line outlined at Potsdam, the foreign ministry must proceed in principle as to find an outlet for German population, including the high skilled bronze horse.

He stressed the dangers to Europe and the world of an unregulated Germany.

THE POTSDAM decision was a determination of Poland's western frontier, large blocks of eastern Germany should be placed under the administration of the Polish state.

In effect, the Polish eastern frontier was moved west to the Oder and Neisse rivers. Parts of Prussia were placed under the administration of Poland and parts under the administration of the Soviet Union.

Official British and American sources said Berlin and Foreign Minister Molotov discussed matters of "common interest" for two hours last night. Informants said the ministers likely sought to reduce differences over principles dividing them in their conceptions of Germany's future.

Diplomats speculated that an imminent showdown was possible on the question of how to divide the future which might determine whether the conference would succeed.

THE LINES were drawn abruptly yesterday when the Soviet Union accused the western powers of trying to impose an "imperialist" peace on Germany in the wake of the German recovery while trying to convert the country into a base for "military aggression" in Europe. Russia was struggling to win a "democratic peace" for Germany.

His speech was regarded in America and Britain as a part of a propaganda battle designed to undermine the confidence of the German people in the German government as a champion of "democracy."

THE AMERICAN view that Russia was trying to use the conference as a sounding board for Soviet propaganda was reflected in the reply of State Secretary Marshall, who declared he was convinced Molotov was not really believing his allegations about "imperialistic designs and the creation of slave states."

"Let us get down to work," Marshall said. "And drop this business of alleging evil intentions which are figments of propaganda."

After about 20 minutes, it was washed ashore. "I passed out," he said.

Another survivor, Second Master Henry H. Wolfe, of Oakland, told reporters that he had been in the boat when the storm broke out.

He said the boat was hit by a wave and the crew was thrown overboard.

His speech was regarded in America and Britain as a part of a propaganda battle designed to undermine the confidence of the German people in the German government as a champion of "democracy."

THE AMERICAN view that Russia was trying to use the conference as a sounding board for Soviet propaganda was reflected in the reply of State Secretary Marshall, who declared he was convinced Molotov was not really believing his allegations about "imperialistic designs and the creation of slave states."

"Let us get down to work," Marshall said. "And drop this business of alleging evil intentions which are figments of propaganda."

After about 20 minutes, it was washed ashore. "I passed out," he said.

Another survivor, Second Master Henry H. Wolfe, of Oakland, told reporters that he had been in the boat when the storm broke out.

He said the boat was hit by a wave and the crew was thrown overboard.

Reserve Judgment Wage Test Case

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The supreme court of Canada yesterday reserved judgment on a federal government reference asking for a ruling on the question of whether provincial minimum wage laws can be applied to Dominion government employees.

The court gave no indication as to when it would make a ruling on the arguments heard during the last three days in the case that arose out of the failure of a Saskatchewan postmistress to pay the province's minimum wage rates to a temporary assistant.

F. P. Varcoe, deputy minister of justice, and W. R. Jackett of the justice department argued on behalf of the attorney-general for Canada that postal employees as servants of His Majesty did not come within the provisions of provincial minimum wage laws. Representatives of the Saskatchewan, Alberta, Ontario and Nova Scotia governments argued that the wage laws of the provinces applied to federal employees.

The reference to the supreme court asked whether the appeal court of Saskatchewan had been correct in ruling that postal employees were subject to minimum wage legislation.

The appeal court made its ruling in upholding the magistrate who fined Mrs. Margaret Ellen Graham, postmistress at Maple Creek, Sask., for paying a temporary Christmas rush assistant less than the rate provided for under provincial legislation.

Christmas Seals Fight To

See Possibilities In Weed-Killer

REGINA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The wartime development of 2,4-D, a chemical weed-killer, showed great possibilities as a means of eradicating weeds, R. O. Bilbey, secretary of the national weed committee today told delegates to the three-day western weed control conference.

But there was no guarantee that 2,4-D would not be replaced by an even more efficient weed-killer, he said.

During the opening session of the conference, delegates discussed the effect of 2,4-D on crops and P. J. Olson, of Manitoba Agricultural College, said experiments conducted in Manitoba this year showed that 2,4-D treatments did not adversely effect barley, millet and corn sown at five different dates.

To Try Hitler, Eva Braun in Absentia

FRANKFURT, Nov. 27.—(AP)—A Bavarian denazification court will shortly try Adolf Hitler and Eva Braun in absentia to determine disposition of their own and other Nazi fortunes and properties. Stars and Stripes reported from Munich yesterday.

The United States army newspaper's dispatch, quoting a Bavarian military government official, said the properties of Hermann Goering, Rudolf Hess, Martin Bormann, Heinrich Himmler, Julius Streicher and Baldur von Schirach would be dealt with in the same trial.

Seek to Trace Polish Veterans

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Arthur MacNamara, deputy minister of labor, announced yesterday that the government's national employment service is attempting to trace 12 Polish veterans now missing from their places of employment.

The men were among the former members of the Polish army brought to Canada to work on farms.

"The 12 men have left their places of employment without making application to the employment service and it is believed that their purpose is to seek non-agricultural work," said Mr. MacNamara. "Employers are being asked to report any cases of the 12 missing men applying for non-agricultural work."

Mr. MacNamara said he did not plan to release the names of the missing men for publication at this time. The disappearances were not confined in any one area, but were spread all across the country and occurred over a considerable period of time.

Confirm Canada Excludes U.K. Cars

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(CP)—A Canadian trade spokesman yesterday confirmed a report in this morning's Daily Graphic that Canada has "closed her doors to British cars until quota figures are worked out" but said he had few details with which to amplify it. The Canadian House spokesman said regulations barring shipments of British automobiles to Canada have been effective since Nov. 15 and will remain in effect until the conclusion of quota negotiations now in progress in Ottawa.

Presumably the ban was caused by the new import restrictions now in effect in the Dominion.

In Birmingham, L. P. Lord, chairman of the Austin motor company, told the annual shareholders' meeting that "it would appear that the latest excise duty proposals would reduce the Canadian market very considerably."

His recent forecast that 7,000 Austins would be shipped to Canada in 1948 was already "obsolete," said Lord.

Plumbing is the science of getting water where and how it is wanted and then getting it away again.

Jap Organizations To Purchase Wool

TOKYO, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Japan will be able to buy 150,000 bales of Australian wool this year through Japanese organizations instead of the supreme command. Allied powers, as formerly Agents in Australia will probably bid for the wool as public opinion is against entry of Japanese buyers.

HAPPILY OBLIVIOUS
HASTINGS, N.Z.—(CP)—Rattling, until recently, didn't mean a thing to an old farmhand of a remote sheep station near here. On a rare visit to town he was nonplussed when asked for coupons for clothing he had bought, and explained that the farm produced all the food he needed and he hadn't bought any clothes since 1939.

Pensioners to Ride Free In Calgary

CALGARY, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Free pass privileges on Calgary's street cars and buses will be made available soon to some 1,400 old age pensioners in the city.

City council approved the idea Monday with the provision the passes will be limited to the "off peak hours."

Council also decided to study the question of extending the free pass privileges to other recipients of pensions who are more than 70 years old.

Trade Balance By End of 1948

By JAMES MCKOOK

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The United Kingdom as one member of the sterling bloc expects to attain a balance of trade or at least a "manageable" situation by the end of 1948. However, she needs the co-operation of other members of the sterling area in making special efforts to permit over-all balance, a government spokesman said yesterday.

The United Kingdom is the centre of the sterling bloc of which the other leading members are the Dominions, apart from Canada. The present British program of reduced imports and top production for exports is designed to offset dollar shortages and threatened exhaustion of gold and dollar reserves.

The spokesman said that recent statistics of better coal production and maximum steel output, plus good reports from other industries, indicated that management and labor are working in co-ordination to meet the economic crisis.

If absolute balance in British trade was not attained next year, at least the gap between income and outlay should be such that Britain could cover it from reserves with reasonable confidence that they were not likely to be soon exhausted.

The sterling area Dominions in particular had faithfully observed a "gentleman's agreement" to use their dollar resources for essential purchases only and thus assist the position of the general area, the spokesman said.

Will Leave Scars As Grim Reminder

Nov. 27.—(Reuters)—

A few of the scars caused by bombs to the masonry of St. Paul's cathedral are to be left "as a reminder of the perils which the cathedral survived during the attacks on London."

The cathedral, famous landmark with its giant dome, became a symbol of endurance when it survived German bombing attacks which devastated areas of the city immediately around it.

A report issued last night by the Dean of the cathedral said repair of the scarred and pitted masonry is going on and some of the windows have been reglazed, mainly with plain glass.

Says Lawyers Stirring Up Japs

CLOVERDALE, B.C., Nov. 27.—(CP)—Thomas Reid, Liberal member for West Westminster, B.C., has charged that a group of Eastern Canada lawyers were attempting to stir up Japanese to request reparation of their British Columbia farms.

Addressing the Surrey Liberal Club Tuesday night, Mr. Reid said: "To Toronto, there is a group of Conservatives aided and abetted by the CCF, protesting from Japanese invasion of British Columbia during the second world war, who are accusing the government of robbing the Japanese of their lands in 1941."

"The CCF in particular is championing the cause of the B.C. evacuated Japanese but I am going to do all in my power to prevent any Japanese from getting a licence to fish in B.C. waters."

Switching to the Newfoundland question, Mr. Reid said he believed it should be administered by the United States, comparing it to Alaska as a strategic defence area.

First Thanksgiving Dinner In 26 Years

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Mickey Schuster, 28, will eat his first Thanksgiving dinner in 26 years when he sits down at the table Thursday.

The Youngstown, O., furniture worker has returned to his home following an operation here which opened his stomach—sealed tight for 26 years after Mickey swallowed his first child. He had been fed through a hole in his stomach.

Thumbs Down On Oleomargarine

VANCOUVER, Nov. 27.—(CP)—

Fear of relaxation of federal controls on the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine in Canada brought action yesterday from the British Columbia Federation of Agriculture in annual convention here.

Amid growing demands from non-farm interests for sale of the butter substitute in the Dominion, the federation adopted a resolution asking the federal government to maintain the ban against importation or sale of margarine into federal authorities.

The federation represents 12 primary producers in British Columbia with a membership of 72,000 farm families, many of whom operate dairy farms.

In both eastern and western Canada, many organizations favor sale of margarine—selling today in Seattle at 39 cents a pound compared with 6 cents for butter in Vancouver—and the subject is expected to come before the parliamentary session opening Dec. 5.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce, with its thousands of members, now is conducting a referendum on the sale of margarine, seeking general public opinion across the Dominion.

Record Curling Season Expected At Red Deer

RED DEER, Nov. 27. — Red Deer curlers are all set to open what promises to be one of the biggest seasons in the history of the Red Deer Curling Club. An hundred and twenty-seven men turned out for the club's semi-annual meeting, probably the largest attendance at a sports organization meeting ever held here.

OFFICERS for 1957-58 were elected at the annual meeting held last spring. They are: honorary president, Marshall Leese; president, Hugh Lee; first vice-president, Ollie Stranne; second vice-president, Art Landie; secretary, W. A. Giesse; treasurer, A. J. Knight; directors, Harold Sorenson, Gordon Towers, E. G. Goodridge, Jim McRobbie and J. V. Betterson; trustees, J. E. Wiggins, A. R. Little and S. M. Burnett.

Boys from the Central Alberta composite high school curling team will curl at the rink but their numbers will be limited and their play will be under supervision. A committee headed by J. F. Campbell will look after high school curling.

Secretary Gates and Treasurer Knight will look after the season's draw this winter. Two draws a night, at 7 and 9 o'clock, will be arranged, and a bell will be rung to call the rinks off at 9 p.m. whether games are completed or not. Handicapping will be used during this season. The president will select three members to be known to each other who will handle this job.

FIRST COMPETITION of the season will be the annual president versus vice-president match for the sappers. About a dozen rinks are already lined up and more are being formed. It is expected that about 40 rinks will curl at the club this winter.

The annual Central Alberta bonspiel will be played on the six sheets of ice at the curling rink and the hockey arena will not be used. This will be welcome news to curlers who suffered last winter from the extreme cold and tricky ice at the arena. Dates of the bonspiel will be announced later.

Visits High Prairie

HIGH PRAIRIE, Nov. 27. — Robert Moss of Nelson, B.C., who has been attending the opening of the new Lakeside hotel at Faust was in High Prairie on Nov. 26. He was accompanied by Joe Turtion, who will be employed at the hotel on his return trip to Faust.

Leaving Bashaw

BASHAW, Nov. 27. — A farewell gathering in honor of Fred McDonald and daughter Mildred, who are leaving soon for Kelowna, B.C., was held at the Mirror town hall recently.

Mr. McDonald has lived in Mirror for several years and was secretary of the Buffalo Lake Livestock Association until a year ago.

Elect Officers

GRIMSHAW, Nov. 27. — At a meeting of the Grimshaw Curling Club recently, the following officers were elected for the coming season: president, W. M. Chubb; vice-president, E. L. McFarlane; treasurer, W. A. McFarlane. Ice-making is planned for the future and an even greater number of rinks than last year is anticipated.

R. Keiller, Sexsmith, has been appointed agent for the new Alberta Wheel Pool elevator here.

Girl Kills Owl

BASHAW, Nov. 27. — Kathryn Sundbom, 16-year-old Bashaw girl, killed a "giant" owl while out skating. When she stopped to fix her skis, the big bird flew to her side and before it could harm her, the young girl killed it with one of her skis.

Most Bashaw business places will close at 6 p.m. with the exception of Saturday during the winter and spring months, it was decided here recently.

WI Group Meets

STONY PLAIN, Nov. 27. — Regular meeting of the Stony Plain Women's Institute was held recently at the home of Mrs. H. C. Russell with 13 members and seven guests present.

Red Cross Blood Transfusion Clinic was in Stony Plain recently and took blood from 25 donors.

Hold Annual Bazaar

HIGH PRAIRIE, Nov. 27. — A large crowd attended the annual bazaar and tea of the United Church Ladies' Aid here recently. Mrs. McCue, Mrs. Skogge and Mrs. Knecht were in charge of the fancy work and apron booth. Mrs. T. Smith attended the white elephant table.

Mrs. Joe Hall, Mrs. Charles Spenhoff, Mrs. Elmer King and Mrs. Joe Bissell poured tea. Mrs. George Bishop, Mrs. Lawrence Sigurdson, Mrs. Harry Hegg and Mrs. Ruth Stephens were in charge of the tables. Miss Dorothy McIntyre was in charge of the fish pond, while Mrs. Hazel Green took charge of home cooking.

Annual meeting of the aid will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard Carson, Wednesday, Dec. 3.

Hold Variety Program

HIGH PRAIRIE, Nov. 27. — Ladies of the Royal Purple held a variety program in the Legion hall recently which was attended by a large crowd.

The following were award winners: Stella and Jeanette; Der. Gay Knecht; Patricia Hayden; Gaylene Belkirk; Carol Hannah; Norma Elder; Helen Bjorklund; Joe Martinuk; Shirley Trump; Beila Simmons; Bernice Davidson; Margaret Viker and Billy Greer.

Literary Society

HIGH PRAIRIE, Nov. 27. — The High Prairie School Literary Society held its bi-monthly meeting here recently. About $50 was raised for library books and play-ground equipment. It was also decided to raise $100 in aid of the skating rink. It was announced that Grade 10 will sponsor the annual school party Dec. 4.

Plan Baby Clinic At High Prairie

HIGH PRAIRIE, Nov. 27. — A monthly Well Baby Clinic will be inaugurated in High Prairie under the joint sponsorship of the High Prairie school division and the provincial department of health. The clinic will accept all infants and pre-school children in the school division.

All services offered will be free. Services of the clinic will include health examinations, inoculation, vaccination as well as discussion of any child's health problems. Members of the staff of the clinic are Dr. End Stephens, public health nurse.

The clinic will be located in the home economics building. First clinic will be held Nov. 28, from 2 to 3 p.m. Clinics will be held the third Saturday of every month.

Arrange Series Talks for Teachers

ELK POINT, Nov. 27. — Arrangements have been made with officials of the department of education by R. Racette, inspector of Dec. 8, Paul School Division, for addresses to be made at Teachers' Institute meetings to be held at certain centres within the bounds of the St. Paul Inspectorate.

A. A. Aldridge, supervisor of guidance, will address the teachers on the aims and objectives of his department, and on the administration of tests. The other speaker will be either Mr. Hamilton, of the Audio-Visual Aids branch, or D. T. Oviatt, supervisor of teachers' service bureau.

The institute meetings have been set as follows: Sub-Division No. 3 at Norway Valley School, to include Frog Lake Indian School and Fishing Lake School, Dec. 8; Sub-Division No. 4 at Elk Point School, Dec. 9; Sub-Division No. 5 at St. Paul, to include St. Paul schools and Blue Quill Indian school, Dec. 12.

All meetings have been scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

NWT Council Meet

Survey of Cariboo Population Likely

OTTAWA, Nov. 27. — (CP) — The RCAF "probably" will undertake a survey of the Cariboo population of the Northwest Territories next spring. Air Commodore H. B. Godwin, air force representative, told the Northwest Territories Council at a meeting yesterday.

The survey, requested by the western provinces and the federal resources department, would involve a photographic record of the Cariboo before the break-up in June, followed by a scientific expedition in which experts would be flown into the Cariboo area to study conditions from the ground.

Importance of the Cariboo as a study for the native population of the far north, coupled with a fear that Cariboo could be becoming extinct prompted the study.

Co-operation of the province would be sought in finding personnel for the study, since the survey was first suggested at a Dominion provincial wild life conference.

Also mentioned at the meeting was a winter road from Hay River to Yellowknife.

A parliamentary party has undertaken to report on possibilities of the winter road, which might cost $20,000. However, there is still no indication of the amount of traffic it would carry, or its possible future value.

It would avoid a dangerous, direct route across the lake and cross a peninsula jutting into the lake from the west, trying in with the road from Grinham, Alta., to Hay River.

The council also approved a proposal that resources department employees and their families might be flown free from their location to the nearest railroad and back once every three years, or to the nearest school, Dec. 10; Sub-Division No. 2 at Bellville School, Dec. 11; Sub-Division No. 1 at Ashmont school, Dec. 12.

All meetings have been scheduled for 1:30 p.m.

Many Complaints Registered Chiang Faces New Difficulties After China's General Election

By John Roderick

SHANGHAI, Nov. 27.—(AP)—China's first general election on democratic lines has driven a wedge into the ranks of Chiang Kai-shek's dominant Kuomintang, the government party. The country-wide balloting created, as the Generalissimo knew it would, a bloc of malcontent.

A GROUP of these disgruntled Kuomintang officials already has warned Chiang of "dire consequences" to the party unless past errors in the nomination and election of party candidates is quickly corrected, reports an Associated Press correspondent in Nanking. The officials, he said, represent the legislative and control councils of the government and the people's political council.

These officials are unhappy because many failed to receive nomination to new elective posts. The legislative Yuan went on record a short while ago as recommending that it be returned to office in a body because of its members' qualifications and experience.

SOME POLITICAL observers said Chiang's position following the election is shakier than ever before simply because an element has been introduced which even his political genius has been unable to cope with fully. To understand this, one must recall that Chiang Kai-shek has had definite cleavages or cliques that control government departments or have sway over certain phases of the country's economy.

Premier Chang Chun is a representative of the political clique, which had its base in government officials and has a hand in a number of lucrative enterprises, such as the sugar industry of Formosa.

ANOTHER FORMIDABLE group is the well-known "Clique," headed by the brothers Chen, Li-Fu and Chen Kuo-Fu. Through the connection with the Kuomintang party organization and the farmers' bank it reaches down to the small governmental subdivisions—the townships and neighborhoods—Pao and the Chia, which are neighboring and neighboring districts patterned after the Japanese block system.

In the past, Chiang has been able, within tight confines of the party's central committee or national congress, to play these factions off against each other and to emerge at the top. This position now is more difficult since it involves the complexity of election machinery and gives disgruntled groups a chance to grip the reins.

CHANGHAI officials called Chiang barely 24 hours after the voting places closed and said the nomination system was unfair because it failed to consider qualifications and merits of individual party members. They contended it favored those who had pulled with the party's central committee.

Chiang, who foresaw these difficulties a few weeks ago told government officials to place the election second to the civil war, promised remedial measures.

Should the Kuomintang revolt bolt over Chiang might have to resort to increased military and Communist propaganda or scare up some other whipping boy to distract attention.

Small Powers Want Big Four Hearing

THE HAGUE, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Belgium, Luxembourg and The Netherlands asked yesterday to be heard on German problems, particularly that of the Ruhr, by the London conference of foreign ministers.

In a joint note they recommended to the Big Four that the Ruhr district come under special international control with their governments participating.

Although they were not invited to give their views on the allied policy in Germany, the note said, that their interests are not interfered with Germany to pass it by and asked that no decision be taken without previous consultation with the approval by the three powers.

They expressed their regret that the "occupational authorities in many respects have not given adequate weight to the vital interests of their countries, particularly in the economic field."

BY END NEWY
CALGARY, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The new two years will be the most crucial in Alberta's history. Premier Ernest Manning told the connection with the provincial convention Social Credit Women's Auxiliaries of the Alberta Social Credit League, here yesterday.

"Alberta's influence now has become a power to be reckoned with... In the next year or two as we progress our opponents will leave no stone unturned to destroy us."

He said internal stability was the highest objective of the Social Credit movement.

"It is essential to the strength, perseverance and success of every group... It is in Social Credit's greatest need for 1948. Social Crediters need for 1948."

He suggested that a provincial organizer be appointed to encourage old and establish new women's auxiliary groups. Mrs. Baker of Edmonton was elected and her appointment will be ratified by the executive.

Last Time Heavy During October

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The packhouse workers' strike was responsible for 65 per cent of the total time lost through strikes and lockouts during October, Labor Minister Mitchell announced yesterday. Total time lost through strike activity was higher than the previous month and also greater than October, 1946.

The packhouse strike involving 41 establishments, began in August and was not settled until Oct. 23.

Preliminary figures for October show 46 strikes and lockouts, involving 27,560 workers with a time lost of 428,170 man-working days compared with 41 strikes in September, with 19,479 workers involved and a time loss of 276,880 days. In October, 1946, there were 37 strikes, involving 33,435 workers and a time loss of 392,241 days.

Educational Leaders Termed "Crackpots"

CALGARY, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The professional educational leaders, who were brought into Alberta from the United States at the formation of the Social Credit government, were termed "crackpots" by Dr. Clarence S. Sanson, former director of the Calgary faculty of education, in a speech to the Knights of the Round Table here Tuesday.

"These professional leaders from the U.S. universities are not professors, and many are not even associate professors. They are the crackpots of the professional education movement in Alberta and approach the subject of education with the humility of a true teacher."

Industry Faces Difficult Task

MONTREAL, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The executive council of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association said in a statement released last night that many industries will face a difficult task in finding new and adequate sources of supply quickly enough to maintain operation without interruption owing to recent import restrictions imposed by the government.

The statement, released following a closed meeting of the association's executive council, said the full effect of government prohibitions and quotas on manufacturing of much of the material used in manufacturing in Canada cannot yet be assessed in full. It adds in brief that the association heartily subscribes to the government's request for co-operation in a drive to make more goods available from Canadian production, but feels that steps should be taken carefully with full regard to our recent dependence on other countries for much of the material and equipment which we need and cannot get readily from Canadian sources. Temporary restriction should be discarded quickly, as Canadian sources of supply are discovered and utilized. Electronics have been added to the ancient art of brewing perfect beer.

Major Headache

U.S. Doesn't Want More Canadian Gold

By Charles Molony

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The United States government, which owns more than 60 per cent of the world's gold is worrying about the prospect of getting more, is suffering an additional headache from a Canadian plan to encourage gold production.

TREASURY Secretary Snyder yesterday said a press conference that the United States is "discussing the scheme with Canadian officials, apparently trying to get it dropped or at least to keep the extra gold out of the United States."

Already, gold is pouring into the United States from various parts of the world at a rate of more than $2,000,000 a year, steadily swelling the huge money supply, which the government concedes is a major factor in present inflation and high prices.

Officials see no signs that the inflow will let up during the next year and Snyder said the treasury is considering action to keep it from adding further to the money supply if inflation reaches an "emergency" stage.

He emphasized that the treasury is "not even considering" changing the gold value of the dollar, which has been $35 an ounce since 1934.

CANADA DOES not contemplate selling gold outside its borders at more than $35 an ounce. The 46-power world monetary fund has asked its members, including both Canada and the United States, to help prevent international sales at more than $35 an ounce lest international money exchange rates be upset.

Apparently the question for Canadian-United States and world fund officials to settle is whether Canada's internal price is just a local matter, or whether it upsets the international balance.

Treasury officials said Snyder, under United States law, could, if he chose, stop buying gold from Canada but they emphasized there is no reason yet to think he will do so.

AT OTTAWA, finance department officials said details of the Canadian plan still had to be worked out, including obligations under the international monetary fund.

It was considered that Washington references to discussion of the scheme referred to Canada's commitments under the international monetary fund.

While the United States appears to think that the $7 subsidy would greatly increase Canadian production, big Canadian mining companies do not share the same view. The companies have arranged to meet Mr. Abbott, to impress on him that $7 an ounce would be inadequate to spur production.

Yule Turkey For Strikers

VANCOUVER, Nov. 27.—(CP)—British Columbia Federation of Labor (CFL) yesterday announced a policy of a turkey on the table of every striker this Christmas.

Harold Pritchett, federation secretary, told the Vancouver Labor Council that all CFL unions were being canvassed to provide funds for Christmas hampers for the families of any unionist on strike during the Christmas season.

"No striker should have to go without a turkey dinner and somehow the money will be raised," Steelworkers' spokesman Ben Baskin said.

Rivers Class Graduates

First Jump Thrills New 'Chute Troops

By Capt. J. D. Donoghue

RIVERS, MAN., Nov. 27.—(CP)—A class of 13 paratroopers, latest of the nucleus of Canada's new airborne army being trained at this joint army-air force school, proudly wore their graduation insignia today. And every one was willing to admit there was nothing like those five graduation jumps from 1,000 feet to produce thrills, chills—and butterflies in the stomach.

THE FIVE JUMPS climaxed four weeks' training for the class of 11 soldiers and two airmen.

Tension nevertheless mounted as the trainees strapped on their parachutes for the jumps that climaxed days of work from the 256-foot steel jump tower and the "mock-up" tower, closer to the ground.

For one, Pte. F. Barley of Port Arthur, Ont., it was his first time in a plane as well as his first jump. As the plane gained height over the jumping ground, the voice of Jumpmaster Sgt. Eddie Hordyky of Toronto could be heard above the roar of the motors.

"Stand up! Hook up! Stand to the door!"

THE STUDENTS executed the orders swiftly, stepping to the open doorway of the plane.

Then came Sgt. Hordyky's final order: "Go!"

In a matter of seconds the 13 students, unperturbed by the unknown number of their class, spilled from the plane. It wasn't until they'd reached the dropping zone that they admitted having suffered "butterflies in the stomach."

Sgt. Maj. H. S. Landon, Drummondville, Alta., said he "could see the ground and I was sitting on the alp strech with my legs stretched out in front of me—everything was clear and much like what I had expected."

Pte. W. H. Rayfield of Winnipeg found his second jump more exciting than his first, which was hairy.

On the second he experienced the sensation of falling, only to be snapped up sharply when his chute opened.

Others in the graduating class were Sgtm. R. A. Heward and Sgt. H. Wilby, both of Winnipeg, the latter a member of the RCAF.

5 YEARS AHEAD IN SAFETY

An entirely new departure in tires, the only one of its kind in the world, the new Seiberling Heat-Vented Tire reduces dangerous internal heat, a major cause of tire failure. Now you can drive all day at hitherto prohibitive speeds, with complete ease of mind.

I would like to point out that this new Seiberling Heat-Vented Tire is definitely premium quality at standard price. We are proud of this new safety tire because we are convinced it offers value unequalled in the tire industry.

Marion Toomay

PRESIDENT

SEIBERLING RUBBER COMPANY OF CANADA, LTD.

This new Seiberling is the only tire in the world with Heat Vents. These vents carry off the dangerous internal tire heat that every tire generates while in motion. They also draw in cooler air, actually air-conditioning the tire.

This feature, something absolutely new, exclusive with Seiberling, assures you and your family super-safety, every time you go out driving.

Heat Venting is not an engineering mystery that you have to take for granted.

You can see with your own eyes how it works.

You can take one of these new Seiberling Tires in your own hands, rotate it, and see for yourself the way its Heat Vents operate.

The idea seems simple as A, B, C. You wonder why no one ever thought of it before. But actually these Heat Vents represent years of research, and thousands of tests made by Seiberling engineers. All to make every moment of your driving safer . . . much safer!

This new Heat-Vented Seiberling Tire also has a Stronger Body, perfectly balanced.

Each cord in it carries equal weight. There's no over-straining . . . less friction to create heat . . . more resistance to bruises.

The breaker strips between body and tread are extra strong, welded as one unit to protect more against jolting road shocks. You ride more comfortably as well as more safely.

Mileage, too, lots of it, and Smart Appearance

Heat-Vented, air-conditioned, the wider, flatter, tread of this new Seiberling Safety Tire is like a super racing tire . . . free from useless bulk. So this tire is bound to give you greater mileage—the kind of mileage you want

Furthermore, this new Seiberling Heat-Vented Tire definitely makes your car look smarter. There is a Seiberling Dealer near you. Look for the SEIBERLING sign—and see the new SEIBERLING HEAT-VENTED TIRE NOW!

How much will it cost you to drive with Greater Ease of Mind?

See your Seiberling Dealer now! He will make a very generous allowance on your old tires. Deduct this allowance from the prices below. You'll find that safer driving is low cost driving on this premium quality Seiberling Heat-Vented Tire.

Pays Tribute Shooting Victim

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Reduction of the pension of Her Majesty's First World War veteran who fatally shot Dr. M. R. Bowie, veteran department medical officer, in his office here Tuesday, was made only partly on the basis of Dr. Bowie's examination, a DVA statement said last night.

Dr. Bowie, whose funeral will be held here today, was killed in a shooting in the Vancouver veteran shot him without warning and then committed suicide by turning the gun on himself, apparently because he had been brought over a reduction from 60 to 40 per cent in his disability pension. The statement issued by James I. Melville, chairman of the Canadian Pension Commission, referred to Dr. Bowie as "an outstanding fine public servant" and stressed that Page's pension was reduced on the strength of examinations made while he was a patient at Shaughnessy hospital, Vancouver, last summer, as well as on the condition shown in a through X-ray made in Ottawa and through Dr. Bowie's examination.

Blame Troubles On Cominform

ROME, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Premier Alcide de Gasperi said last night the Italian government "will do its duty" in the face of left-wing violence, insurrection strikes and the report of country-wide walk-outs planned for Dec. 9.

The Italian rightist and independent press reported from "trustworthy sources" yesterday that strikes were being planned in Italy and France for Dec. 1. The Communist party ridiculed the reports.

De Gasperi told the national council of his Christian Democratic party that "organized masses, labor and peasants" are risking their liberty through "a policy of taking danger to city squares and insurrectional tumult."

The council re-elected de Gasperi leader of the party by a vote of 33 to 2.

The Independent Expresso said Christian Democrats, backing the government of Premier Alcide de Gasperi, believed the disorders of the last two weeks in Italy, which have taken at least 24 lives, were "a specific plan by Togliatti and Thorelli, put into operation under orders of the Cominform."

Biting Passenger

DETROIT, Nov. 27.—(AP)—A Detroit street railway bus driver showed up a recalcitrant passenger Tuesday night to report a new occupational hazard. The driver, Dominick Graubi, was treated for a bite on the arm which he said was inflicted by an untamed blind passenger during an argument over smoking on the bus.

Before Appeal Court Questions Authority Of Sask. Labor Board

REGINA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Government counsel contended yesterday that the Saskatchewan Labor Relations Board was similar in principle to Workmen's Compensation Board and that a long series of judicial decisions had confirmed the right of a provincial government to establish such "administrative tribunals."

DR. M. C. Schumacher, legal adviser to the Saskatchewan government, told the Saskatchewan Appeal Court the onus to prove the board unconstitutional rested with the John East Iron Works of Saskatoon which has asked the court to quash a board order.

Company Counsel E. C. Lennie challenged sections of Saskatchewan's Trade Union Act, setting up the Labor Relations Board, the only one of its kind in Canada. The board has usurped judicial functions, he said, which were the prerogative of the federal government under the British North America Act.

A brief flare-up between Mr. Justice P. M. Anderson and Dr. Schumacher interrupted Mr. Lennie's comparison of workmen's compensation boards and the labor relations board. Workmen's compensation boards were set up because the people wanted them, the judge said.

"There are lots of things I could amaze you with," Judge Anderson replied.

MR. LENNIE said the board had passed the Trade Union Act contrary to the wishes of the province. Dr. Schumacher asked: "Such a suggestion from the bench amazes me."

"I am sure that if I could amaze you with," Judge Anderson replied.

No Precedent Says Police Magistrate

A man who drew one more day of unemployment insurance than he was entitled to was placed on six months suspended sentence when he appeared before Magistrate A. J. Miller in city police court Wednesday afternoon.

In imposing the sentence on Gerard Laforte, Legal, the magistrate stated that he usually gave a 30 day jail term on such a charge but due to the fact that only one day of money had been drawn was giving the suspended sentence.

He pointed out however that the sentence was not to be taken as precedent for future cases in court under the Unemployment Insurance Act.

Look For Higher Coffee Prices

MONTREAL, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Sources close to the coffee trade said last night that despite the recent lowering of the tax on coffee by one cent a pound, prices to retailers and to consumers were due for an upturn, possibly as much as 10 cents a pound.

MR. L. LEBAN, vice-president of London House Products of Canada, said that price increases were brought about by higher packaging and market costs.

It was explained that up to the date of the coffee processing there had been using stocks purchased from the Canadian Stabilization Board at prices ranging from 2 1/2 cents for poorer grades to 3 1/2 cents a pound for top grade.

These stocks must now be replaced at market prices.

Asks Salacious Pulp Banned

VICTORIA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The Parent-Teacher Federation of British Columbia, representing 20,000 members, yesterday called for all-out war on salacious pulp and comic magazines.

It asked the provincial government to sponsor legislation to prevent the sale of such publications on news stands.

Mrs. C. W. Stellish, provincial president, heading a committee of delegation, told Attorney-General W. Bennett that new anti-obscenity program has banned a number of United States magazines that have been found to prevent them coming back as well as to maintain a firm control.

"This type of magazine is poisoning the minds of our young people," she said.

U.K. Market More Stable

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—A mutual feeling that food and other contracts between Canada and the United Kingdom should be continued if prices can be agreed upon was reported last night on the basis of two days of exploratory discussion between Dominion officials and members of a British mission.

The British delegation, made up of representatives of the British treasury, the food ministry and the board of trade, arrived here Monday and thus they have been engaged in preliminary talks with their Canadian counterparts.

Of the fields in which they specialize. In Canada quarters, it was felt that any advantage Canada might reap from sending foodstuffs to the high-paying United States markets might be short-term in character while Britain although her prices were lower, provided a more stable market.

Winter Fair End Colorful Scene

TORONTO, Nov. 27.—(CP)—In a brilliant display of colorful uniforms and blaring bands, the Royal Winter Fair closed its great annual show last night after admitting crowds watched the United States army military jumping team capture the International Military Officer's Team Challenge Trophy.

The smooth-moving Americans headed the second-place Mexican army team which won every military jumping event in the first six days of the fair's horse show.

A packed coliseum saw the Canadian team take fourth place behind Elze's competitors.

The closing night ceremonies closed the second-place Mexican army team which won every military jumping event in the first six days of the fair's horse show.

Douglas Asks Liberal Policies

REGINA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Premier T. C. Douglas of Saskatchewan last night called on Walter Tucker, provincial Liberal leader, to announce the policies a Liberal government would follow if elected in the province.

A careful examination of Mr. Tucker's statements will show that he has advanced no alternative; that he has contented himself with mere fault-finding and has verily avoided placing before the people of Saskatchewan the policies and commitments of the Liberal party.

Mr. Douglas said in an address transmitted for delivery over a provincial CBC network.

Constructive criticism has a valuable place in democratic government but an opposition had the responsibility of doing more than "merely calling names and hurling abuse," he said.

Vancouver Car Fares Boosted

VICTORIA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The Public Utilities Commission yesterday, in an interim order, approved higher street car and bus fares for Vancouver, providing for a 10-cent cash fare or three tickets for 25 cents. The present fare is seven cents or four tickets for 25 cents.

The new fare structure, under which weekly passes will be abolished, becomes effective Monday. The boost will cost the travelling public of Vancouver $1,500,000 annually.

The commission found a necessity to increase revenue to meet higher operating costs, including $800,000 a year, recently granted from operations following a 30-day strike for higher pay.

... six days of turmoil—that was election week in Upper Canada! Voters formed in long queues to mount the "hustings" (a rough wooden platform) ... declaring aloud for all to hear, "I vote for John Smith." Your Baby and Mine

By Myrtle Meyer Edred

The three-month schedule need not be an artificial program thrust upon the baby. It should come about naturally when the baby begins to show a distaste for that afternoon bottle.

Beginning at about 7 to 8 months of age, the baby who is on 4 meals will tend to follow a routine similar to the following—which is that of a real baby this age.

The baby wakes anytime from 7 to 9 and drinks thirstily 7 ounces of milk and eats several teaspoonfuls of a prepared baby cereal.

At 9 o'clock there is the juice of an orange or two, depending on the size of the oranges, and the daily doses of vitamin D. In this case six drops of a concentrated oil.

At 11:30 she is hospitable to about half a can of steamed vegetable, using alternately several varieties of rice or two teaspoons of meat, a half can of custard and 8 ounces of milk. She takes all the milk on some days, on others she wants only from 3 to 6 ounces. No attempt is made to force more than she wants.

At 3 p.m. she is offered another 8 ounces of milk. This is the meal at which her appetite is most capricious. If she took less than 6 ounces at 11:30 she may drink the 8 ounces without a whimper. More often she cares little for it. At this hour her mother offers an ounce or two by bottle and an ounce or two by cup, she is in the mood she drinks this last as easily as she flows her glass of morning orange juice. Just as often she pushes it away.

At 6 p.m. she gets oat or barley, or meat and vegetable soup, or chicken and vegetable soup, or baked potato or another serving of custard. With any of these she gets at least a half can of steamed fruit, her favorite being pear and apple with peach and plum lagging behind.

Sometimes, if that mid-afternoon bottle has been repudiated, the night meal has to come as early as 5:30. Strangely enough this does not cause the baby to awaken any earlier in the morning. If she isn't sleepy, right after dinner, getting all he or she wants to eat on three meals, that she must be generous ones, with the baby getting all he or she wants to eat.

It is important, when the child is on three meals, that these meals be generous ones, with the baby getting all he or she wants to eat. Then satisfaction is just as great as when four meals are served.

Increase For 10 Months

Canada Shows Export Gain During October

OTTAWA, Nov. 27.—(CP)—Canada's growing position as a supplier in a trade-higher post-war world was reflected yesterday in figures showing the Dominion's export trade with other nations jumped sharply to $250,000,000 in October of this year.

THE FIGURE was the third highest monthly total in the post-war period, being exceeded only by May and June of the year.

The Dominion bureau of statistics reported that in the first 10 months of this year Canada's exports aggregated $2,255,000,000 compared with $1,865,000,000 in the similar period of 1946, an increase of 20.7 per cent and one that mirrored her efforts to gain needed dollars through trade.

Exports to the United States which bring in vital American dollars, rose from $600,000,000 in October last year to $100,450,000 in October 1947, being exceeded only by shipments to America in November which totalled $104,500,000 in October compared with $71,600,000 in the same month a year ago.

UNITED KINGDOM imports from Canada totalled $66,700,000 compared with $45,000,000 in October last year. Imports from the United States $85,000,000 compared with $71,600,000 and for the United Kingdom $66,700,000 compared with $45,000,000.

A feature of the month's exports was the further advance in the wood and paper products group, which rose from $82,500,000 in October last year to $90,000,000. Due in the main to decreases

Find Heir to Baronetcy In Denver, Colorado

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(CP)—An heir to the sixth baronetcy of Lurran, Fernanach, has been found in Denver, Colo., after a search lasting many years.

Cyril Hankinson, editor of Dehret's Telegram, said yesterday that the successful conclusion of the search was undoubtedly the result of stories carried by the Canadian Press.

Last June the Canadian Press carried a story from London stating that there was no heir to the baronetcy now held by Sir Charles Hardinge of London.

The story was clipped from a Canadian newspaper and sent to Robert Hardinge, who was living in the West Court hotel, Denver.

Hardinge sent family documents to Hankinson establishing that he was the son of Edmund Cyril Hankinson who emigrated to Canada from England late in the last century to work on the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Later the senior Hardinge went to Indiana where Robert was born in 1887. Hankinson said yesterday that Robert Hardinge's claim has been approved by the home office and that his name will be published in the next issue of Dehret's as heir to the title.

On the death of the present heir he will become Sir Robert Hardinge, Bart. Then the title will pass to his son, Robert Arnold, also living in Denver.

Review Sentences Of Collaborators

PARIS, Nov. 27.—(Reuters)—The justice ministry is systematically reviewing sentences passed upon persons found guilty of collaboration with the German who view to reducing terms of imprisonment and possibly commuting death sentences.

A ministry official said that in most cases so far considered, the sentences have been cut approximately by half, and of 536 death sentences passed by French courts for collaboration since the liberation, only 63 have been carried out.

Most of the rest have been commuted to life imprisonment with hard labor.

Meanwhile, the justice ministry hopes to finish off the remaining collaboration trials by next spring.

Forty-four former "Vichy" ministers and high officials are booked for trial this winter.

Of the smaller fry, 3,083 remain to be tried out of a post-liberation total of 32,230.

Christmas Mail for United Kingdom

A record shipment of mail, largest ever to leave a Canadian port, was carried to the United Kingdom on the Canadian Pacific cargo-passenger liner Beaverford which sailed from Montreal for Liverpool Nov. 25 with 167,500 bags of parcel post. In addition to 10,000 tons of regular cargo, including the heavy deckload of logs, shown above, and 25 passengers. In the above picture, the last bags of mail in the record shipment, which weighed 800 tons and occupied 102,410 cubic feet of space, were being loaded. The mail, a large part of which is made up of Christmas packages, is packed 25 feet deep in the hold.

Say "Constitution" Caused by Molotov

MOSCOW, Nov. 27.—(AP)—The Soviet press told the Russian public today that Foreign Minister Molotov had created consternation among his colleagues at the big Four conference in London by charging that certain powers were trying to force an "imperialist peace" on the world. Both State Secretary Marshall and Foreign Minister Bulganin "treated nervously" to Molotov's speech, said Tass dispatches from London.

Alleges Social Work Hampered

Charges of antipathy by the provincial child welfare branch towards the participation in welfare work of volunteer citizens, and that the fundamental principle of all modern social work is being hampered by the one branch were made by Dr. Charlotte Whitton during the titling of the commission dealing with the child welfare probe at the court house on Wednesday.

Dr. Whitton submitted that the social antipathy to participation of volunteer citizen welfare effort in the promotion of public welfare, the policy of the department, enunciated by the minister and his officials, is opposed to the effective participation of citizen interest, effort, or funds in family and child welfare.

Dr. Whitton also submitted that the fundamental principle of all modern social work is the preservation of a child's relationship with his home and family, and that lack of an integrated public welfare and social assistance program and departmental policy have resulted in the unnecessary separation of parent and child, and in the unnecessary and unjustifiable destruction of guardianship.

Dr. Whitton stated there is nothing wrong with the people of Alberta or their attitude towards welfare work, but that the system is restricted here because of the lack of information and public opinion caused by the government's policy.

Won't Pay $42.60, Farmer Takes Jail

CALGARY, Nov. 27.—(CP)—B. Shot, Crossfield, Alta., farmer, is going to spend 30 days in jail rather than pay $42.60 arising out of an income tax violation.

The middle-aged farmer, appearing in court here Tuesday he has no intention of paying the $22 fine and costs of $20.60 for failure to file form "T" covering income tax for 1942, 1943 and 1944.

Royal Reception

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(AP)— Buckingham Palace announced today that the King and Queen will hold a reception Wednesday for about 100 members of foreign delegations attending the foreign ministers conference.

Composer Dies

SYRACUSE, N.Y., Nov. 27.—(AP)—Carlisle Louise Sumner, 74, poet and composer, died yesterday after a long illness. She wrote both words and music for "The Abiding Power," "Hope On" and "Smile On."

Passenger Killed

FARNBOROUGH, England, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Dr. passenger was killed and 20 others injured five of them seriously, last night when a Southern Railway train plowed into the rear of the "Bournemouth Belle" express about three miles from the Hampshire county town.

Last Lives During Second World War

Names of 27 Canadian Newsmen Are Incribed in Book of Honor

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(CP)—The names of 27 Canadian newspapermen who died in the Second World War are inscribed in a book of honor, unveiled at the Press Club in Fleet Street yesterday, containing the names of 420 British, Dominion and colonial journalists who lost their lives in the conflict.

The Canadians, killed in the services or as war correspondents, are:

Lieut. John Joseph Andre, R.C.A.,

Chief Justice Says Last Notice

S. Bruce Smith, KC, and George H. Steer KC, counsel for the provincial government, and Dr. Charlotte Whitton and the DDB, respectively were verbally chastised by Chief Justice W. R. Houson Wednesday morning during the third day session of the Royal Commission investigating the probe into the Provincial Child Welfare department.

Mr. Steer and Mr. Smith were told by Chief Justice Houson to "pull on the gloves" and retire to the solicitor's room to settle their quarrel. The possibility of a glove battle quickly died when Mr. Steer proclaimed that he had long passed the stages of such rugged exercises.

For the second time Wednesday morning the two counsellors along with witnesses, Dr. Whitton, were warned to immediately cease quarrelling in order to expedite the hearing of the investigation. Chief Justice Houson vehemently declared the warning as his final notice.

MATHEW, Nov. 27.—(AP)—Six guerrillas and one police lieutenant were killed and four policemen were wounded in a pitched battle here Sunday night. It was announced by the army that the fight and the main can be fought.

Lone Bandit Holds Up Bank

MONTREAL, Nov. 27.—(CP)—A lone bandit, covering the head with a revolver, held up the Royal Bank branch on Jean St. last night after closing hours and escaped with between $5,000 and $10,000.

The robber entered the bank closing time and, armed with a revolver, held up the staff in hand. He was armed with a revolver, held up the staff in hand. He was armed with a revolver, held up the staff in hand.

Papers in Chicago Still Publishing

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—(AP)—A strike of more than 1,500 Chicago area printers spread to suburban Hammond, Ind., today, resulting in the temporary suspension of the Hammond Times, but Chicago's six big daily newspapers continued publication by a photo-engraving process.

The Hammond daily newspaper was one of the eight smaller Chicago area publications served yesterday with demands by local 36 of the Chicago Typographical Union (AFL) to limit immediately salaries of day workers $14.50 weekly and night and "inset" shift workers $15 weekly.

The union's demand to the eight smaller publications was the same which led to the strike Monday night on the six big dailies. The union wanted the wage hike immediately "pending further negotiations" on other issues.

The Chicago newspaper Publishers Association replied they were willing to discuss wage proposals within the framework of a contract but that the union had adopted a no-contract policy because of the Taft-Hartley Law.

The Chicago newspapers have contracts with 25 other craft unions. A representative of the Chicago print pressmen's union, Local No. 7, said "We negotiate our agreements with the publishers for our members and only for them. We're obliged to fulfill the terms of our contract."

Debate to Argue Provincial Rights

Resolved that the provinces should be abolished" is the subject of a debate chosen for argument at the December meeting of the Edmonton Union of Laborers to be held in the 100th Hall on 180 street, Tuesday at 8 p.m. Neil D. MacLean, KC, and F. R. Horton have been chosen to uphold the affirmative, while Andrew MacLean and Duncan H. Innes will defend provincial rights and speak for the negative.

Thief Robs Thief

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 27.—(AP)—"Some dirty thief," a youth complained to police, stole a handbag and $150 from him. The police, unimpressed, jailed him, charged that he had taken the money in the first place, in a Nov. 18 store burglary.

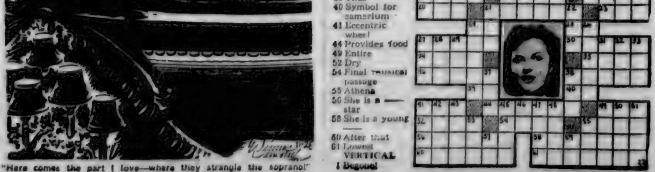

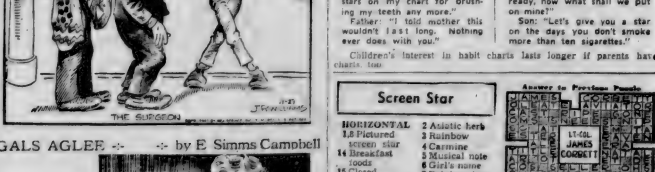

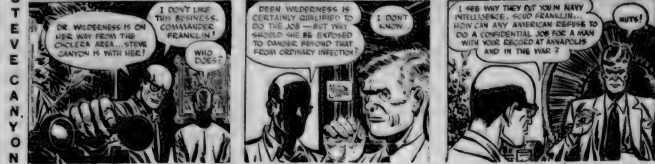

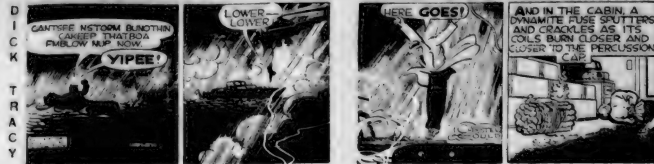

Libby's Gentle Press TOMATO JUICE

You can't mistake the finer, garden-fresh flavour of Libby's "Gentle Press" Tomato Juice—so superbly delicious that it's first choice in Canada from coast to coast. And while you're enjoying it, remember this: Libby's is an excellent source of vitamins A and C. Vitamin A promotes glowing health and builds resistance to infections. Vitamin C aids digestion, fights fatigue, helps prevent tooth decay. You can enjoy these benefits simply by giving Libby's a regular place on your daily menu.

It's equally delicious as a "starter" for breakfast, an appetizer at lunch, a cocktail at dinner, or a healthful, thirst-satisfying drink anytime. Make Libby's your daily health habit.
